GRAND RAPIDS, DEC. 15, 1884.

MINOR MICHIGAN MATTERS.

Canisovia has a writing-school.

Niles is to have a juvenile cornet band.

The bazaar at Kalama zoo closed with a doll's party.

Clothes line thieves took $200 worth at Grand Ledge.

The Franklin Congregational Church wants a pastor.

Kalamazoo's new water works building is nearly completed.

Charles J. Watson, a prominent citizen of Adrian, died Friday.

There are thirty persons now in the Kalamazoo County poor house.

The Scandinavians of North Muskegon began last week the erection of a church.

Rev. J. H. Dudley will leave the Niles Baptist Church to go to Brooklyn, N. Y.

The people of Niles talk of boring for the salt supposed to underlie their little city.

They are having some quick examinations in the Circuit Court at Jackson these days.

The "Northern Michigan polo league" was organized at East Saginaw Friday evening.

Muskegon had a brilliant children's masquerade at the Clay avenue rink Friday evening.

The English-speaking clergymen of Montague and Whitehall have formed a Ministers' Monday Club.

Work on the Adrian well has stopped, the proprietors becoming discouraged after drilling 1,071 feet.

The Thayer Lumber Company of Muskegon has over 1,000,000 feet of lumber cross-tied in their yards.

Great destitution is reported among the farmers on cleared lands in the upper part of the Lower Peninsula.

Mrs. Rebecca Orant died at Dowagiac Friday, aged 75 years. She had resided in that vicinity fifty years and was well-known.

It is denied that W. G. Fraleigh of Flint has commenced suit against the Eddy Printing and Publishing Company for malicious prosecution.

William Farrell, of Ludington, was one of the victims in the robbing of passengers in a train not far from Little Rock, Ark., a few days ago.

Several Bay City gentlemen are interested in a new gold mine which is expected to eclipse anything yet discovered in the Lake Superior country.

A 12-year-old Charlevoix girl forged two orders on village merchants for $5 and $14 and traded them out. She evidently has a figure before her.

Delegates from the United States army are in Fort Barrancho arranging to erect a soldiers' monument and place 136 headstones on soldiers' graves.

Mr. Wm. Ritchie has finished the foundry at Battle Creek for Messrs. Bird & Baker. He dug the trenches for the foundation on the 15th of November.

Judge Williams, of Allegan, is a candidate for a place in the Alabama court of claims made vacant by the resignation of Judge Wells, of Kalamazoo.

The E. T. Barnum wire and iron works of Detroit will probably remain closed for some time, as all efforts to make a compromise between creditors have failed thus far.

Ed. J. Moriarty, years ago employed on the Muskegon Enterprise, died this week at Philadelphia in St. Joseph's Hospital. He was a brother of Mr. D. J. Moriarty of Muskegon.

The sixteen wells to be used as a source of supply for the Lakeside water works are all down, and the works will soon be in operation. It is believed that the plan adopted will work well.

A family in Muskegon seated in their kitchen on Thursday night were shot at from the outside. The policeman could find no trace of them, but the man of the house thinks he knows them.

The Citizens' Law and Order League, of Kalamazoo, held a small but enthusiastic meeting Friday night at the Court house, and it was voted that league become a member of the state league.

Twenty-four persons or firms paid liquor taxes in Allegan county for the current year, and the total of their payments was $6,775. Sixteen of our twenty-four townships are exempt from the saloon curse.

The Ludington Record came out on the half-sheet this week. Its package of patent bowls failed to arrive. The paper was an improvement over the regular form and the p. b. should fail to come every week.

The Van Buren County Board of Examiners have examined 145 applicants since the beginning of the present school year, and have granted ninety-two certificates, three first, three second, and eighty-five third grade.

Two sons of leading citizens, aged fifteen and sixteen years respectively, named Taylor and Van Amburg, quarreled at school Friday. The former was stabbed in the left lung with a jack-knife, though it is now thought not fatally.

Marcellus has a family named Naylor numbering twenty-one, nineteen of whom are the dear children, the progeny of the same parents. Fourteen of the children live at home, and wheat is high enough for them at seventy cents a bushel.

S. L. Seger, of Hillsdale, has decided to try the experiment of silk worm culture and has made arrangements for 20,000 worms. He has already received a consignment of fifty mulberry trees from the government Agricultural Department.

The Standard Manufacturing Co. of Jackson are not affected by dull times. The company has trebled its facilities in the past year, and are obliged to work overtime to fill orders. They manufacture muslin underwear and children's goods.

Principal Willets of the State Normal, gives consideration to the proffered presidency of the Agricultural college at Lansing, mainly because the winter vacation would give him a chance to escape the rigor of the cold months which tries his health.

The convention of county agents with the State Board of Charities has proved a very interesting meeting. It was shown that the jails of the state are in a terrible state of neglect. In this state there are 11,000 people in jail and 66 escapes the past year.

The December term of the Circuit Court at Lansing will begin next Monday, with Judge Emery, of Alpena, on the bench. Judge Gridley having made arrangements with him to that effect, owing to the great length of the Crounch case in the Jackson Circuit.

Kalamazoo is having a course of lectures under the auspices of the Catholic Young Men's sodality. The first lecture was given Friday evening by Rev. Edward Higgins of St. Xavier's college, Cincinnati. The second one will be given by Rev. Eugene Brady of the same city.

Fifty tons of celery are being shipped from Kalamazoo daily. Three thousand tons were shipped in 1883 and 5,000 in 1884. From 1,500 to 2,000 acres are devoted to this industry in the vicinity of Kalamazoo, and 20,000 stalks are easily raised during this season on an acre.

C. N. Riddle, of Brookfield, has demonstrated that cotton can be raised in Michigan. Last year he obtained seed from Texas, and this year he used his own seed, obtaining the cotton two weeks earlier than last year. The sample for exhibits is fully the equal of the Texas article.

Samuel Clements, a farmer of Richfield, was seriously wounded on Friday by John J. Crestinger of the same place, while shooting at a mark. He received a charge of shot in the face and the doctor thinks he will lose the use of one if not both of his eyes. He is in a very moderate circumstances and has a large family.

Read What Van's Magic Oil or King

of Pain Has Done for the People.

We have used Van's Magic Oil for internal and external applications, in cases of Colds, Coughs, Cuts, Burns, Bruises, etc., and find none better. It is especially adapted to children, as it can be used with safety and satisfaction, and we earnestly recommend it to parents.

Muskegon, Sept. 20, 1884.

J. W. EDDY.

I have used Van's Magic Oil for Neuralgia, and it has proved to be satisfactory, as it has cured me entirely; also our next door neighbor was cured by it. Josephus Kieft, by internal use for Sore Throat, combined with a severe Cough and Hoarseness; also a man by the name of Stoffel Kewinck was cured by it of a very severe Lame Back. I can never say too much in praise of your Magic Oil.

Grand Haven, April 25, 1884.

Yours truly, JACOB DESPILDEH.

We have used your Magic Oil for several years, and would not like to be without it, as it is a good family medicine, viz: Burns, Bruises, Sore Throat, Colds, etc., hence I truly recommend it to the public.

REV. E. VANDERKILDE.

Patterson, N. J., Feb. 11, 1884.

Muskegon, Mich.

Mr. N. G. Vanderveelde:—We have used your Magic Oil with great satisfaction. One of our children was taken sick with (so-called) diphtheria. Of course we employed a doctor, but the child grew worse every day. One morning, the doctor called with four more of his profession; and commented. If the child would be alive in the evening they were to open the child's throat and cut the phlegm out. This I did not approve of, but as there was no hope of the child's recovery, I consented. Finally our neighbor, Mrs. F. Vanderveelde, called with a bottle of your Magic Oil, and asked if we would use it—it would cost us nothing. We gave the child three or five drops internally every hour, and poulticed the sores of its feet with ointment, and bathed its throat with Magic Oil, and when the doctor came in the evening he wanted to know what we had given the child, as it breathed so much easier. I told him we used Van's Magic Oil. He said keep right on using it as that was better than he could do. I have thanked Mrs. Vanderveelde a thousand times for her kindness, and I sincerely thank you for your valuable medicine.

Yours truly, MRS. A. D. PAIN.

Muskegon, Mich.

—I would say, I have known the effects of Van's Magic Oil, in domestic practice, always with good effects, never with bad effects. Have prescribed it in my practice; find it a very good and safe medicine.

W. H. DELAP, M. D.

Van's Magic Oil or King of Pain is manufactured by N. G. Vanderveelde, Muskegon, Mich., and is sold by all dealers.
